We Are In It....

We are in the Clothing business. We have clothing that will suit you in style, workmanship and price. It's the make and the fit of the clothing we sell that brings the customers to our store. We can clothe you from the top of your head to the soles of your feet. Every day the nobbiest of headgear, and the very best of footwear are going out from our store, and speaking for the goods we sell. Don't fail to see the beautiful suits we are selling for $9.00. They are going like hot cakes.

Children's Clothing, too, we carry in all styles. We have a large stock.

We have been in business in Yale for 27 years, and those who have known us longest are our best customers. If you are not a customer, why not? Try us for anything you may need for man, boy or child, in the clothing line. We only ask for a trial.

Yours respectfully,

YALE CLOTHING HOUSE,
J. C. HOLDEN, Prop.

It Was a Surprise.

The Republican Caucus of Brockway township was called to order by James Wallace, chairman of township committee, at 7:45 Tuesday evening. In the neighborhood of eighty interested ones were present. On motion Postmaster Wallace was elected chairman and E. H. Drake secretary. The chairman appointed J. A. Menzies and John Sheehy tellers. Justice Ballentine took the oaths of the officers and then nominations were in order.

The Grangers of West Brockway turned out in force, turned over things and elected an anti-organization delegation. The following were chosen delegates:—Robert Middleton, Frank Newell, T. H. Parkinson, John Sheehy, Isaac Menerey, F. A. Griswold and J. C. Holden, all tip-top good fellows, but they appeared a bit lonesome at the convention yesterday.

AFTER CONSIDERATION.
Below we give a few remarks heard on the street after the caucus:—
E. H. Drake—"We have met the enemy and we are theirs."
Will Cavanagh—"I am going to join the Grangers."

J. A. Menzies—"I thought I was a Granger."
James Wallace—"They'll ask me about things next time, I guess."
James McColl—"I was never so surprised in my life."

Frank Newell—"Machines are horrible things. No honest man could belong to a machine."
Carl Holden—"I had a tight squeeze but they let me in after everybody else was taken care of."

Ham Parkinson—"There is something besides cheap wire fence in being a Granger. How would a Senatorial toga fit me?"

Isaac Menerey—"I have said I was getting too old for politics but this renews my youth."

John Sheehy—"I guess I was not turned over this trip, but it took two hard days driving."
Bill Bidleman—"I run the Grange and the Grange runs Brockway politics. We did it."

E. H. Drake, W. A. Cavanagh, Geo. Allen and J. A. Menzies were in Port Huron on business and pleasure Thursday.

Mrs. D. Stoner, daughter Alice and son Frank, of Sanilac Centre, took dinner with Carl Stoner at Hotel Jackson Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Orser, of Belding; Oliver Smith and daughter Nellie, of Toronto, Ont., are visiting with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, sr., of Orser had not met her brother Oliver for twenty years. It was a happy meeting.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. John Wiley died at her home in North Port Huron on Sunday, April 24, 1904, aged 72 years. The funeral was held on Tuesday from the house and the interment was made in Lakeside cemetery. She has been a sufferer for many years from asthma which was the cause of her death.

A husband and five children are left to mourn the departure of a devoted wife and mother. The children are Mrs. J. D. Grawburg, of Yale; Mrs. John Baker, Jeddio; James and Charley Wiley, of Saginaw; Alexander, of Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Grawburg attended the funeral.

James McNair, a brief mention of whose death appeared in last issue of The Expositor, was born September 19, 1825, at Nassagaweya, Ont., and died April 15, 1904, in Worth township, Sanilac county. In 1852 he married Margaret McLeod and with his life partner moved to Michigan in 1871. Deceased had been a consistent member of the Disciple church for over 45 years.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Presenting Attorney Burt D. Cady this forenoon told the Times that after a consultation with his friends he has decided to become a candidate for reelection this year. Mr. Cady says he was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of E. F. Law, and has only been elected once. He thinks he is entitled to a second nomination. Mr. Cady is one of the most active young Republicans in St. Clair county, and has made an excellent official.—Port Huron Daily Times.

The republican organization of this county won out hands down at the convention held at Port Huron yesterday. The boxers had a following of 37 and the regulars 131. Four sets of delegates were elected, one set to attend the state convention at Grand Rapids May 18, one set to the congressional convention, one set to the judicial convention and one set to the state nominating convention yet to be called. A list will be published later.

ALBESON IN HEALTH.
Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Sold by all druggists of Yale.
